1 INTERPRETATION

(1) In these rules—Act means the Associations Incorporation Act 1981.

present—

- a. at a management committee meeting, see rule 23(6); or
 - b. at a general meeting, see rule 36(2).
- (2) A word or expression that is not defined in these model rules, but is defined in the Act has, if the context permits, the meaning given by the Act.

2 NAME

The name of the incorporated association is Australian Native Bee Association Inc.

3 OBJECTIVES

The objectives of the association are —

- a. To promote, and protect the interests of its members (professional and amateur keepers of native bees);
- b. To support the protection and conservation of Australian native bees in the wild;
- c. To represent industry policy at all levels of Government, private enterprise and the public;
- d. To support the development of pollination services, honey production, trade in native bee husbandry products, educational services and other relevant activities;
- e. To disseminate information of interest and relevance to its members;
- f. To conduct and encourage research;
- g. To establish, authorise and support branches in areas where there is interest;
- h. To secure business concessions and services for members;
- i. Engage with indigenous communities and interests for mutual exchange of knowledge.

4 POWERS

- (1) The association has the powers of an individual.
- (2) The association may, for example—
- (3) enter into contracts; and
- (4) acquire, hold, deal with and dispose of property; and
- (5) make charges for services and facilities it supplies; and
- (6) do other things necessary or convenient to be done in carrying out its affairs.
- (7) The association may also issue secured and unsecured notes, debentures and debenture stock for the association.
- (8) To invest and deal with the money of the Association not immediately required in such manner as may from time to time be thought fit;
- (9) To print and publish any newspapers, periodicals, books or leaflets that the Association may think desirable for the promotion of its objects;
- (10) The Association may from time to time raise funds through the sale of native bee associated merchandise.

5 CLASSES OF MEMBERS

- (1) The membership of the association consists of the following classes of members—
 - a. Industry members;
 - b. Standard members;
 - c. Concessional members;
 - d. Honorary members.
- (2) The number of Industry, Standard, Concessional and Honorary members is unlimited.
- (3) Industry members shall be businesses, professionals and university or Government units involved within the native bee industry and are entitled to two votes at a General Meeting.
- (4) Standard members shall be individuals with an interest in native bees and are entitled to one vote at a General Meeting. Couples are allowed under this category but only one may vote.
- (5) Concessional members are those who hold a Seniors card, Pensioner concession card, or health card, who are unemployed, or who are full time students.
- (6) Honorary Members shall be appointed for each financial year, by the Management Committee in its absolute discretion after consideration of the member's association with the industry. Such members shall be entitled to all the rights and privileges of membership (save the right to propose and/or vote on motions).

6 NEW MEMBERSHIP

- (1) The management committee will set the requirements for an Application as it sees fit to meet current technology.
- (2) People applying for membership need to be advised that the Association has public liability coverage and list the current amount.
- (3) When a member joins the Association and pays their subscription or on subsequent payment of subscription, they shall be asked to nominate the Branch of the Association to which they wish to belong and the Branch shall be entered on their receipt.
 - a. Any member who does not wish to be attached to any existing branch will be classified "unaffiliated" and have no branch rights.
 - b. No member shall be entitled to pay more than one Membership or pay a fee in excess of the maximum stipulated below in 8 (1).
 - c. Any member wishing to transfer from one branch to another branch must inform the Secretary of the Association within 14 days.

7 RULES FOR BRANCHES

- (1) Each Branch shall hold at least three (3) meetings per year.
- (2) Each Branch shall elect a Chairperson and Secretary/Treasurer or Secretary and Treasurer plus other officers as appropriate. The duties of the Branch Secretary shall be set out in the minutes of the Branch.
- (3) No person shall be eligible to hold the office of Chairperson unless that person has been financial for at least two years prior to holding office; except in the case where a new Branch is formed.
- (4) Any membership fees paid in accordance with rule 9 to Branch Secretaries, shall be paid to the Association within 28 days receipt thereof.
- (5) The Management Committee of the Association may call a special meeting of members of a Branch at any time and, if necessary, a member of that committee shall occupy the Chair.
- (6) 14 days notice of Branch Meetings shall be given by the Branch Secretary to all Branch members.
- (7) A copy of all notices to Branch members shall be sent to the Secretary of the Association.
- (8) Any Branch funds left over after paying all membership fees to the Secretary of the Association, shall be deemed to be the property of the Branch concerned.

- (9) The funds of the Branch shall be banked in the name of the Branch in such banks as the Branch Executive may from time to time direct.
- (10) Proper books and accounts shall be kept and maintained in the English language showing correctly the financial affairs of the Branch and the particulars usually shown in books of a like nature.
- (11) All moneys shall be banked as soon as practicable after receipt thereof.
- (12) A petty cash account must be maintained, and the Branch committee must decide the amount of petty cash to be kept in the account. The maximum cash amount is $100.00
- (13) All amounts shall be paid by Electronic Funds Transfer being authorised by any two of the president, secretary/treasurer or Secretary and Treasurer or other member authorised by the Branch Executive. Amounts up to $100 dollars may be paid by petty cash.
- (14) Cash amounts held over $100 must be banked as soon as practical.
- (15) All expenditure shall be approved and/or ratified at a Branch meeting.
- (16) As soon as practicable after the end of each financial year the treasurer shall cause to be prepared a statement containing particulars of –
- (17) the income and expenditure for the financial year just ended; and
- (18) the assets and liabilities and of all mortgages, charges and securities affecting the property of the Branch at the close of that year.
- (19) A copy of the annual statement shall be forwarded to the Association Secretary and Treasurer within one month.
- (20) Auditing or verification of Branch accounts shall be as required by the Queensland Government.

8 MEMBERSHIP FEES

- (1) The membership fee for Industry and Standard membership and for each other class of membership (if any)—
 - a. is the amount decided by the members from time to time at a general meeting; and
 - b. is payable when, and in the way, the management committee decides.
- (2) Pro rata membership is available in the first year of membership and is based on monthly increments.

9 ADMISSION AND REJECTION OF NEW MEMBERS

- (1) The management committee must consider an application for membership after it receives—
 - a. the application for membership; and
 - b. the appropriate membership fee for the application.
- (2) The management committee must ensure that, as soon as possible after the person applies to become a member of the association, and before the management committee considers the persons application, the person is advised—
 - a. whether or not the association has public liability insurance; and
 - b. if the association has public liability insurance—the amount of the insurance.
- (3) The management committee must decide whether to accept or reject the application.
- (4) If a majority of the members of the management committee vote to accept the applicant as a member, the applicant must be accepted as a member for the class of membership applied for.
- (5) The secretary of the association must, as soon as practicable after the management committee decides to accept or reject an application, give the applicant a written notice of the decision.

10 WHEN MEMBERSHIP ENDS

- (1) A member may resign from the association by giving a written notice of resignation to the secretary.
- (2) The resignation takes effect at—
 - a. the time the notice is received by the secretary; or
 - b. if a later time is stated in the notice—the later time.
- (3) The management committee may terminate a member's membership if the member—
 - a. is convicted of an indictable offence; or
 - b. does not comply with any of the provisions of these rules; or
 - c. has membership fees in arrears for at least 2 months; or
 - d. conducts himself or herself in a way considered to be injurious or prejudicial to the character or interests of the association.
- (4) Before the management committee terminates a member's membership, the committee must give the member a full and fair opportunity to show why the membership should not be terminated.
- (5) If, after considering all representations made by the member, the management committee decides to terminate the membership, the secretary of the committee must give the member a written notice of the decision.

11 APPEAL AGAINST REJECTION OR TERMINATION OF MEMBERSHIP

- (1) A person whose application for membership has been rejected, or whose membership has been terminated, may give the secretary written notice of the person's intention to appeal against the decision.
- (2) A notice of intention to appeal must be given to the secretary within 1 month after the person receives written notice of the decision.
- (3) If the secretary receives a notice of intention to appeal, the secretary must, within 1 month after receiving the notice, call a general meeting to decide the appeal.

12 GENERAL MEETING TO DECIDE APPEAL

- (1) The general meeting to decide an appeal must be held within 3 months after the secretary receives the notice of intention to appeal.
- (2) At the meeting, the applicant must be given a full and fair opportunity to show why the application should not be rejected or the membership should not be terminated.
- (3) Also, the management committee and the members of the committee who rejected the application or terminated the membership must be given a full and fair opportunity to show why the application should be rejected or the membership should be terminated.
- (4) An appeal must be decided by a majority vote of the members present and eligible to vote at the meeting.
- (5) If a person whose application for membership has been rejected does not appeal against the decision within 1 month after receiving written notice of the decision, or the person appeals but the appeal is unsuccessful, the secretary must ensure that, as soon as practicable, the membership fee paid by the person is refunded.

12A Grievance procedure

- (1) This rule sets out a grievance procedure for dealing with a dispute under the rules between parties as mentioned in section 47A(1) of the Act.

- (2) To remove any doubt, it is declared that the grievance procedure can not be used by a person whose membership has been terminated if the rules provide for an appeal process against termination.
- (3) A member (the aggrieved party) initiates the grievance procedure in relation to the dispute by giving a notice in writing of the dispute: a) to the other party; and b) if the other party is not the management committee, to the management committee.
- (4) If 2 or more members initiate a grievance procedure in relation to the same subject matter, the management committee may deal with the disputes in a single process and the members must choose 1 of the members (also the aggrieved party) to represent the members in the grievance procedure.
- (5) Subject to rule 12B, the parties to the dispute must, in good faith, attempt to resolve the dispute.
- (6) If the parties to the dispute cannot resolve the dispute within 14 days after the aggrieved party initiates the grievance procedure, the aggrieved party may, within a further 21 days, ask the association's secretary to refer the dispute to mediation.
- (7) Subject to rule 12B, if the aggrieved party asks the association's secretary to refer the dispute to mediation under subrule (6), the management committee must refer the dispute within 14 days after the request.

12B Grievance procedure not continued in particular circumstances

- (1) This rule applies if—
 - a. a member initiates a grievance procedure in relation to a dispute and the association or association's management committee is the other party to the dispute; or
 - b. the aggrieved party asks the association's secretary to refer the dispute to mediation under rule 12A(6).
- (2) The management committee does not have to act under rule 12A(5) or (7) if—
 - a. the aggrieved party has, within 21 days before initiating the grievance procedure, behaved in a way that would give the management committee grounds for taking disciplinary action under the rules against the aggrieved party in relation to the matter the subject of the grievance procedure; or
 - b. before the grievance procedure was initiated, a process had started to take action under the rules against the aggrieved party or terminate the aggrieved party's membership, as provided for under the rules, and the dispute relates to that process or to a matter relevant to that process; or
 - c. the dispute relates to an obligation under the Liquor Act 1992 or any other State law to prevent the entry of the aggrieved party to, or to remove the aggrieved party from, premises used by the association, or to refuse to serve liquor to the aggrieved party at the premises; or
 - d. the dispute could reasonably be considered frivolous, vexatious, misconceived, or lacking in substance or the dispute relates to a matter that has already been subject of the grievance procedure.

12C Appointment of mediator

- (1) If a dispute under rule 12A is referred to mediation
 - a. the parties to the dispute must choose a mediator to conduct the mediation; or
 - b. if the parties are unable to agree on the appointment of a mediator within 14 days after the dispute is referred to mediation, the mediator must be
 - c. for a dispute between a member and another member-a person appointed by the management committee; or

- d. for a dispute between a member and the management committee or the association—an accredited mediator or a mediator appointed by the director of the dispute resolution centre.
- (2) An accredited mediator may refuse to be the mediator, or the director of a dispute resolution centre may refuse to appoint a mediator, to mediate the dispute.
- (3) If subrule (2) applies, the parties may seek to resolve the dispute in accordance with the Act or otherwise at law.

12D Conduct of mediation

- (1) If a mediator is appointed under rule 12A, the mediator must start the mediation as soon as possible after the appointment and try to finish the mediation within 28 days after the appointment.
- (2) Subrule (1) does not apply if the mediator is the director of a dispute resolution centre.
- (3) The mediator— a) must give each party to the dispute an opportunity to be heard on the matter the subject of the dispute; and b) must comply with natural justice; and c) must not act as an adjudicator or arbitrator; and d) during the mediation, may see the parties, with or without their representatives, together or separately.
- (4) The parties to the dispute must act reasonably and genuinely in the mediation and help the mediator to start and finish the mediation within the time required under subrule (1)
- (5) The costs of the mediation, if any, are to be shared equally between the parties unless otherwise agreed.
- (6) If the mediator can not resolve the dispute, the parties may seek to resolve the dispute in accordance with the Act or otherwise at law.

12E Representation for grievance procedure

- (1) A party to a dispute may appoint any person to act on behalf of the party in the grievance procedure.
- (2) If a party appoints a person under subrule (1) to be the party's representative, the party must give written notice of the appointment to each of the following entities—
 - a. the other party to the dispute;
 - b. the management committee;
 - c. if a mediator has been appointed before the party appoints the representative—the mediator.
- (3) A representative who acts for a party at a mediation must—
 - a. have sufficient knowledge of the matter the subject of the dispute to be able to represent the party effectively; and
 - b. be authorised to negotiate an agreement for the party.

12F Electronic communication for grievance procedure

Any meeting or mediation session required under the grievance procedure may be conducted by electronic means if the parties to the dispute and, for a mediation, the mediator agrees.

13 REGISTER OF MEMBERS

- (1) The management committee must keep a register of members of the association.
- (2) The register must include the following particulars for each member—
 - a. the full name of the member;
 - b. the postal or residential address of the member;
 - c. the email address
 - d. the phone number
 - e. the date of admission as a member;

- f. the date of death or time of resignation of the member;
 - g. details about the termination or reinstatement of membership;
 - h. any other particulars the management committee or the members at a general meeting decide.
- (3) The register must be open for inspection by members of the Association at all reasonable times.
- (4) Before a member may inspect the register, the member must apply in writing to the secretary stating the intended use of the information. The Management Committee can then determine if the requires to inspect the register is appropriate. The Management Committee may withhold information on the register if the Management Committee has reasonable grounds for believing that the disclosure of information would: a) put a member at risk of harm; or b) be used to contact or send material to another member of the Association for purposes not related to the Association.
- (5) However, the management committee may, on the application of a member of the association, withhold information about the member (other than the members full name) from the register available for inspection if the management committee has reasonable grounds for believing the disclosure of the information would put the member at risk of harm.

14 PROHIBITION ON USE OF INFORMATION ON REGISTER OF MEMBERS

- (1) A member of the association must not—
 - a. use information obtained from the register of members of the association to contact, or send material to, another member of the association for the purpose of advertising for political, religious, charitable or commercial purposes; or
 - b. disclose information obtained from the register to someone else, knowing that the information is likely to be used to contact, or send material to, another member of the association for the purpose of advertising for political, religious, charitable or commercial purposes.
- (2) Subrule (1) does not apply if the use or disclosure of the information is approved by the association.

15 APPOINTMENT OR ELECTION OF SECRETARY

- (1) The secretary must be an adult residing in Queensland, or in another State but not more than 65km from the Queensland border, who is—
 - a. a member of the association elected by the association as secretary; or
 - b. any of the following persons appointed by the management committee as secretary—
 - i. a member of the associations management committee;
 - ii. another member of the association;
 - iii. another person.
- (2) If a vacancy happens in the office of secretary, the members of the management committee must ensure a secretary is appointed or elected for the association within 1 month after the vacancy happens.
- (3) If the management committee appoints a person mentioned in subrule (1)(b)(ii) as secretary, other than to fill a casual vacancy on the management committee, the person does not become a member of the management committee.
- (4) However, if the management committee appoints a person mentioned in subrule (1)(b)(ii) as secretary to fill a casual vacancy on the management committee, the person becomes a member of the management committee.
- (5) If the management committee appoints a person mentioned in subrule (1)(b)(iii) as secretary, the person does not become a member of the management committee.

- (6) In this rule— casual vacancy, on a management committee, means a vacancy that happens when an elected member of the management committee resigns, dies or otherwise stops holding office.

16 REMOVAL OF SECRETARY

- (1) The management committee of the association may at any time remove a person appointed by the committee as the secretary.
- (2) If the management committee removes a secretary who is a person mentioned in rule 15(1)(b)(i), the person remains a member of the management committee.
- (3) If the management committee removes a secretary who is a person mentioned in rule 15(1)(b)(ii) and who has been appointed to a casual vacancy on the management committee under rule 15(5), the person remains a member of the management committee.

17 FUNCTIONS OF SECRETARY

The secretary's functions include, but are not limited to—

- (a) calling meetings of the association, including preparing notices of a meeting and of the business to be conducted at the meeting in consultation with the president of the association; and
- (b) keeping minutes of each meeting; and
- (c) keeping copies of all correspondence and other documents relating to the association; and
- (d) maintaining the register of members of the association; and
- (e) submitting statutory returns to the Office of Fair Trading and ASIC.

18 MEMBERSHIP OF MANAGEMENT COMMITTEE

- (1) The management committee of the Association consists of a president, past president, vice president, secretary, treasurer, Branch representatives and Communications Officer and any other members the association members elect at a general meeting.
- (2) Management Committee members must obtain a Directors ID to comply with the Australian Securities and Investments Commission requirements.
- (3) A member of the management committee, other than a secretary appointed by the management committee under rule 15(1)(b)(iii), must be a member of the Association.
- (4) At each annual general meeting of the Association, the members of the management committee must retire from office, and all but the president are eligible, on nomination, for re- election.
- (5) A member of the Association may be appointed to a casual vacancy on the management committee under rule 21.

19 ELECTING THE MANAGEMENT COMMITTEE

- (1) A member of the management committee may only be elected as follows—
 - a. any 2 members of the association may nominate another member (the candidate) to serve as a member of the management committee;
 - b. the nomination must be—
 - i. in writing; and
 - ii. signed by the candidate and the members who nominated him or her; and
 - iii. given to the secretary at least 14 days before the annual general meeting at which the election is to be held;
 - c. each member of the association present and eligible to vote at the annual general meeting may vote for 1 candidate for each vacant position on the management committee;
 - d. if, at the start of the meeting, there are not enough candidates nominated, nominations may be taken from the floor of the meeting.

- (2) A person may be a candidate only if the person—
 - a. is an adult; and
 - b. is not ineligible to be elected as a member under section 61A of the Act.
- (3) Each branch may elect their nominee for the Management Committee prior to the Annual General Meeting, providing that the said branch has five or more financial members at their meeting when the nominee is elected. Each branch nominee will be appointed, subject to a vote, to the Management Committee by the Annual General Meeting. If a branch does not elect a nominee due to no nomination or due to insufficient members at the meeting or should the Annual General Meeting not approve a branch nominee, the Management Committee member to represent that branch shall be elected at the Annual General Meeting provided that such member need not be a member of that branch.
- (4) A list of the candidate's names in alphabetical order, with the names of the members who nominated each candidate will be circulated to all members at least 7 days prior to the Annual General Meeting.
- (5) If required by the management committee, balloting lists must be prepared containing the names of the candidates in alphabetical order.
- (6) The management committee must ensure that, before a candidate is elected as a member of the management committee, the candidate is advised—
 - a. whether or not the association has public liability insurance; and
 - b. if the association has public liability insurance—the amount of the insurance.
- (7) The president and past-president shall each serve for a maximum of one continuous annual term. At the annual general meeting election of the next management committee, the president is not eligible for re-election but automatically assumes the position of past president.

20 RESIGNATION, REMOVAL OR VACATION OF OFFICE OF MANAGEMENT COMMITTEE MEMBER

- (1) A member of the management committee may resign from the committee by giving written notice of resignation to the secretary.
- (2) The resignation takes effect at—
 - a. the time the notice is received by the secretary; or
 - b. if a later time is stated in the notice—the later time.
- (3) A member may be removed from office at a general meeting of the association if a majority of the members present and eligible to vote at the meeting vote in favour of removing the member.
- (4) Before a vote of members is taken about removing the member from office, the member must be given a full and fair opportunity to show cause why he or she should not be removed from office.
- (5) A member has no right of appeal against the members removal from office under this rule.
- (6) A member immediately vacates the office of member in the circumstances mentioned in section 64(2) of the Act.

21 VACANCIES ON MANAGEMENT COMMITTEE

- (1) If a casual vacancy happens on the management committee, the continuing members of the committee may appoint another member of the association to fill the vacancy until the next annual general meeting.
- (2) The continuing members of the management committee may act despite a casual vacancy on the management committee.
- (3) However, if the number of committee members is less than the number fixed under rule 24(1) as a quorum of the management committee, the continuing members may act only to—

- a. increase the number of management committee members to the number required for a quorum; or
- b. call a general meeting of the association.

22 FUNCTIONS OF MANAGEMENT COMMITTEE

- (1) Subject to these rules or a resolution of the members of the association carried at a general meeting, the management committee has the general control and management of the administration of the affairs, property and funds of the association.
- (2) The management committee has authority to interpret the meaning of these rules and any matter relating to the association on which the rules are silent, but any interpretation must have regard to the Act, including any regulation made under the Act.

Note — The Act prevails if the associations rules are inconsistent with the Act—see section 1B of the Act.

- (3) The management committee may exercise the powers of the association—
 - a. to borrow, raise or secure the payment of amounts in a way the members of the association decide; and
 - b. to secure the amounts mentioned in paragraph (a) or the payment or performance of any debt, liability, contract, guarantee or other engagement incurred or to be entered into by the association in any way, including by the issue of debentures (perpetual or otherwise) charged upon the whole or part of the association's property, both present and future; and
 - c. to purchase, redeem or pay off any securities issued; and
 - d. to borrow amounts from members and pay interest on the amounts borrowed; and
 - e. to mortgage or charge the whole or part of its property; and
 - f. to issue debentures and other securities, whether outright or as security for any debt, liability or obligation of the association; and
 - g. to provide and pay off any securities issued; and
 - h. to invest in a way the members of the association may from time to time decide.
- (4) For subrule (3)(d), the rate of interest must not be more than the current rate being charged for overdrawn accounts on money lent (regardless of the term of the loan) by—
 - a. the financial institution for the association; or
 - b. if there is more than 1 financial institution for the association—the financial institution nominated by the management committee.

23 MEETINGS OF MANAGEMENT COMMITTEE

- (1) Subject to this rule, the management committee may meet and conduct its proceedings as it considers appropriate.
- (2) The management committee must meet at least once every 4 months to exercise its functions.
- (3) The management committee must decide how a meeting is to be called.
- (4) Notice of a meeting is to be given in the way decided by the management committee.
- (5) The management committee may hold meetings, or permit a committee member to take part in its meetings, by using any technology that reasonably allows the member to hear and take part in discussions as they happen.
- (6) A committee member who participates in the meeting as mentioned in subrule (5) is taken to be present at the meeting.
- (7) A question arising at a committee meeting is to be decided by a majority vote of members of the committee present at the meeting and, if the votes are equal, the question is decided in the negative.

- (8) A member of the management committee must not vote on a question about a contract or proposed contract with the association if the member has an interest in the contract or proposed contract and, if the member does vote, the members vote must not be counted.
- (9) The president is to preside as chairperson at a management committee meeting.
- (10) If there is no president or if the president is not present within 10 minutes after the time fixed for a management committee meeting, the members may choose 1 of their number to preside as chairperson at the meeting.

24 QUORUM FOR, AND ADJOURNMENT OF, MANAGEMENT COMMITTEE MEETING

- (1) At a management committee meeting, more than 50% of the members elected to the committee as at the close of the last general meeting of the members form a quorum.
- (2) If there is no quorum within 30 minutes after the time fixed for a management committee meeting called on the request of members of the committee, the meeting lapses.
- (3) If there is no quorum within 30 minutes after the time fixed for a management committee meeting called other than on the request of the members of the committee—
 - a. the meeting is to be adjourned for at least 1 day; and
 - b. the members of the management committee who are present are to decide the day, time and place of the adjourned meeting.
- (4) If, at an adjourned meeting mentioned in subrule (3), there is no quorum within 30 minutes after the time fixed for the meeting, the meeting lapses.

25 SPECIAL MEETING OF MANAGEMENT COMMITTEE

- (1) If the secretary receives a written request, either in physical or electronic format, signed by at least 33% of the members of the management committee, the secretary must call a special meeting of the committee by giving each member of the committee notice of the meeting within 14 days after the secretary receives the request.
